TV Comes to Fremont

This year television came into the homes of many Fremont students.

It would have been nice, if among their many T.V. programs, there had been a series about Fremont life. If this had been so, the results might have been similar to those on the following pages. One advantageous feature the programs presented here have over regular T.V. shows is that the images will not fade in a few minutes, but will be kept so that you may enjoy the shows as long as you have your 1951 Pathfinder.

So sit back, imagine you have your 16 inch screen in front of you, and enjoy the programs that follow. Above are two Seniors going up the steps to see the 1951 Fremont show. Come along with them and we hope you enjoy "good viewing."

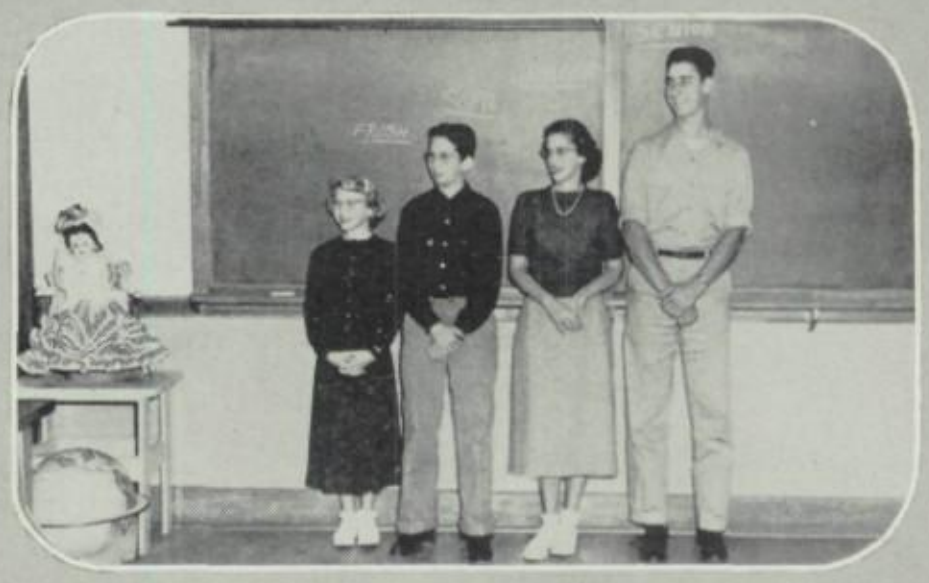
TV LOG

CHANNEL 1 . . . Page 4

First screenings on the 1951 schedule will give the viewers pictures of those who sponsor, produce, and direct the shows that follow. Sitting in the head director's chair at the right is Mr. A. C. Stevens, Jr.

CHANNEL 2 . . . Page 8

The actors who put on the shows are screened in this section starting with the stars, or senior actors, and going on through to the beginners, or freshman actors. Their stages of growth are pictured to the right.



CHANNEL 3 . . . Page 32

All the various types of programs are illustrated to the right. The music department, a costume production, the law enforcement group, and the rally committee, all are represented by actors in the costumes of their jobs.

CHANNEL 4 . . . Page 50

Some of the highest rated programs are those in the field of athletics. At the right representatives from gymnastic groups plan the sports programs pictured in this last section of Fremont shows.

Producers . . .

Principal A. C. Stevens, Jr., and Vice-Principal Winifred Coomb, Fremont's director and assistant director, go over the script of this year's activities which are screened for you on the following pages. Programs both educational and entertaining appear on your Pathfinder sets showing the results of your directors' plans for 1951.

Sponsors . . .

Audience . . .

Specialists . . .

Technical Advisors . . .

Those advisors who hire and fire the different classes of actors and help direct their acting are pictured to the left. Left to right: Miss M. Ahlem, advisor to freshman actors; Mr. J. Mulkey, senior actors; Miss G. Gawthorpe, sophomore actors; and Mr. G. Ames, junior actors.

Technicians . . .

Some of the important people who keep the back stage mechanics humming are shown in a moment of relaxation to the right. Just making it on the screen to the right are Mrs. T. Jacobson and Mr. T. Jacobson. Center is Mr. R. Davis, and in action are Mrs. P. Jemin and Mrs. E. Forbes.

Stars Around

A typical day in the life of a Fremonter starts when the alarm clock signals the time to get started for school. From then on it's work and play, including after school meetings, until time to get ready for the evening's big date (Friday, of course!!).

the Clock . . .

Here a senior boy goes through daily Fremont routine, similar to that of the Fremont girl, except for the worries of getting a car for the evening and figuring out the finances for such necessities as bids and flowers and those after date snacks.
